MS10638

RCM London

Proposed Scheme for a Musical Club in connection with the Women's Institute

That a Club should be formed in connection with the Women's Institute for Women Composers and Executants, all members of such Club to be members of the Women's Institute.

The Objects of the Club to be:-

1. To supply a centre where Women Musicians can meet to discuss and criticize musical matters:

2. To afford them the benefits of co-operation, and, also, when desired, of advice with regard to the business side of publishing compositions:

3. To bring composers and executants into touch with each other and to afford practical opportunities to composers of trying over compositions:

4. To further such other objects as may be deemed desirable by the Committee for the promotion of these interests generally.